A NEW ADDITION TO OUR TEAM

2019 was an exciting year for The Clinic for Plastic Surgery, and we have even more to look forward to in 2020. Many of you are aware of our big announcement about moving into a brand-new building sometime late in 2020, possible early 2021. The plans are already well underway, and not a moment too soon because we're growing almost too fast to control. Our new facility will be four times ... CONTINUE READING

RUNNING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

Maybe you love the majesty of a winter's morning, or maybe you just hate the treadmill. Whatever your reason is for wanting to run or jog outside in the dead of winter, remember to take the proper precautions before stepping out. Runners face challenges during the winter that they don't face any other time of year. If you want to experience the winter safely, there are a few ... CONTINUE READING

YURT SWEET YURT

The allure of the great outdoors calls to many, but pitching a tent and cooking over a fire isn't for everyone. If that describes you, consider the yurt: a small, permanent structure often outfitted with electricity, plumbing, and other modern amenities. Expertly nestled in remote locations, they provide comforts of home in the midst of nature. Here are just a few around the ... CONTINUE READING
